

If you are concerned that a child could be being abused outside the sport

If the child requires immediate medical attention, call an ambulance and inform the doctor that there is a child protection concern

Report your concern to the CWPO or person in charge who will refer the matter to the Social Work Department or the Police without delay. Make a record of anything the child has said or what you have seen, if possible with dates and times.

If the CWPO or person in charge is not available, refer the matter directly to the Social Work Department or the Police without delay.

Discuss with the Social Work Department or the Police whether it is appropriate to discuss the matter with the parents

Complete a report form and copy it to the relevant external agency and the SACU CWPO

If you are concerned about the behaviour of an official or other member / staff / volunteer of the SACU

