

STARTING TRIALS

Trials test rider's handling skills, balance and agility over a variety of natural objects. Riders will face challenges riding upstream, navigating over rocks and ascending grassy hill climbs amongst many other obstacles. Be careful not to stop or put your feet down as this will incur penalties! Officials observe the various sections and score riders on their performance ability. You don't need a driving licence and can start at age 6, so what are you waiting for?