

SACU Motorcycle Sport Scotland Press Release

The SACU is planning a return to competitive Motocross with a four round Scottish Championship for 2017.

The Scottish Motocross Championship has a long history with some famous names as Champions and riders compete annually for the Sinclair Trophy.

The SACU Motocross Chairman Stewart Campbell has put together four dates planned to avoid clashes with the Scottish TwinShock Championship.

The dates for the four rounds are

2nd April

7th May

4th June

6th August

The venues are under discussion at present and will be announced as soon as they are confirmed.

Any clubs who wish to run additional rounds of the Scottish Championship or Scottish National rounds in 2017 are asked to contact the Motocross Chairman Stewart Campbell on 01546 606 852.
